Join us for an Earth Day Celebration Concert Featuring Folk Singer Claire Dacey! Claire is an award-winning folk singer/songwriter and instrumentalist with a voice reminiscent of the legendary female folk singers of the 60's and 70's. A seasoned musician, she writes and performs moving, original songs in a genuine, openhearted style, with a focus on the inner life and our connection to the natural world.

All Ages Welcomed!
Bring a blanket or lawn chair for the concert. Rain date:
Sunday May 1st at 1:00

The Open Space Preservation Commission is excited to partner with the Southborough Library as we host an Earth Day Concert and Native Plant Garden event as the final act of our Planet Palooza: A 2-Week Celebration of the 52nd anniversary of Earth Day dedicated to the memory of Southborough naturalist Linda Hubley.
